Kilimanjaro — Tanzania.
Friends, Rafiki.

This is to inform you that the Tanzania YMCA is arranging climbs to Mount Kilimanjaro.

We have trained staff which provides friendly, effective service at very reasonable charges.

Our YMCA-climb uses the Marangu-route for climbing Mt. Kilimanjaro, the only way advisable for climbers. Leaving the YMCA-Centre in Moshi by bus to Marangu in the morning (shs. 3/-) you reach the starting-point right behind the bridge after about 1 hour drive. There are no shops so you have to buy your food requirements in Moshi.

After a walk about 3 hours first through banana and coffee "shambas", later through rain-forest you reach a picnic-point with nice running water (drinkable). After another 3 hours walk Mandara-Hut (formerly Bismarek) at 9,000 ft. is reached.

Next Morning first you cross the last rain-forest and reach the area of the big grass-plains. After crossing some little valleys and a 10 miles walk you reach the Horombo-Hut (formerly Peters) at 12,335 ft. below Mawenzi. Here you sleep on wooden bunks and it is quite cold in the morning-hours (about 2 degrees centigrade below freezing).

Another 10 miles walk and you reach Kibo-Hut at 15,000 ft. on West side of Mawenzi. From last water point 2 miles above Horombo Hut your porters will take water for the next 20 hours. At Kibo Hut you will feel quite cold and you should not eat heavily due to the lack of oxygen.

Starting at 2.00 a.m. you will need warm clothes, good boots, face-mask, a flash light and skin-protection by Vaseline. A walking-stick is advisable. The temperature at Gillmans point (18,835 ft.) - 15° C. On your way back you will find breakfast ready at Kibo-Hut and for the night you will stay at Horombo-Hut.

On the fifth day you will reach Moshi early in the afternoon.

THE Y.M.C.A. - WAY OF CLIMBING MOUNT KILIMANJARO

According to the wishes of all our young climbers the Y.M.C.A. developed a special way of climbing the Mt. Kilimanjaro on the Marangu route.

The number of climbers for a Y.M.C.A. climbing-party (or more)

An experienced guide leads the party, 3 porters carry the foodstuff, the cooking-utensils, the equipment of the guide and also 8 kg. equipment of climbers. The guide provides cooking for the group.

If the climbers don't want to carry their own stuff, further porters can be provided for shs. 120/-. Each porter carries 15 kgs.

Food has to be provided by the Y.M.C.A. on request. The Y.M.C.A. will do this according to the Y.M.C.A. Climbing-food list. An amount of 15% of the food-price will be charged for.

All equipment for this climb like cooking utensils, cups, plates etc. will be provided by the Y.M.C.A., needed personal equipment can be rented according the price list.

The price of the 3-clim 3-party includes also the hut-fees and is shs. 747/-. Any additional climber has to pay shs. 209/-.

This include 15kg. free-luggage.
The needed mountain-bags for the climbers personal stuff can be hired from the Y.M.C.A.

Important :

Climbers expected to accept weather risks and to pay in advance for the full trip even though it be cut by illness, by bad weather or personal conditions. Climbing is entirely at Own risk. Any necessary rescue procedures will have to be paid by the climber.

In order to avoid disappointment or delay and to enable the YMCA to do the necessary arrangements, we require two days notice and a deposit of shs. 60.00 per climber.
